

IMPRISONED for CHRIST

VIRTUAL EVENT

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 2021 AT 6 PM EDT

Don't miss this special opportunity to meet two Christian workers who were imprisoned for their faith! The Voice of the Martyrs Canada will soon be hosting a FREE virtual event featuring both of these inspiring speakers: Andrew Brunson and Dan Baumann.

While sharing God's love in two different persecuted nations, each of these workers had been arrested, interrogated and imprisoned. Struggling to find God's purpose in their suffering, they ultimately recognized His faithfulness and love amid desperate circumstances.

In addition to hearing their testimonies, you will be able to enjoy uplifting worship music from Dove Award-winning artist Natalie Grant.

Join us for this special event, and learn how you can get involved in helping our persecuted Christian brothers and sisters around the world.

In October 2016, following a failed coup attempt against the Turkish government, authorities arrested Pastor Andrew Brunson along with tens of thousands of military personnel, civil servants, educators, journalists and dissidents. Pastor Brunson, who led a small church in Izmir, became a pawn in a geopolitical chess game.

As a result, he spent two years in a Turkish prison before being released in October 2018. After his release, Pastor Brunson became the focus of worldwide media attention. He recounts the story of his ordeal in the book, God's Hostage, which was published in late 2019.

While traveling in Iran during 1997, Dan Baumann was falsely accused of espionage and detained in a high-security prison for nine weeks. After his release, Dan released his first book, Cell 58, in which he shares the details of his miraculous release. Since then, Dan has worked at YWAM training centres in Colorado and Hawaii, frequently visiting surrounding churches and universities to help disciple young people. He is the author of two other published books, A Beautiful Way and A Fresh Look at Fear.

As an eight-time Grammy nominee and five-time GMA Dove Award-winner for Female Vocalist of the Year, Natalie Grant has become an icon in Christian and Gospel music. Over the years, she has also garnered more than 500 million streams and multiple number one albums and singles on the Billboard charts. Natalie's anointed music ministry has touched the lives of numerous listeners, not only in North America but also around the world.
