VOMC Vice President

Anthony Rhodes began full time ministry with the Voice of the Martyrs (VOMC) in June, 2003. As a young child, Anthony remembers listening to Pastor Richard Wurmbrand and his wife Sabina, the founders of The Voice of the Martyrs, several occasions. Being shaped early in life with the message of the persecuted Church, Anthony remains committed to informing Canadian Christians on how they can encourage, support and pray for those who are suffering for Christ.

Anthony develops international partnerships through which VOMC implements and carries out practical, yet strategic projects that assist persecuted Christians. Anthony frequently speaks at churches and other events on the subject of the persecution of Christians.

The Voice of the Martyrs Canada is a Canadian not-for-profit charitable organization dedicated to providing practical support and encouragement to those who are being persecuted throughout the world for the expression of their faith in Christ.
