

NAME:

WEIGH IN FACT

1) Did you know that modern slavery is still rampant in all parts of Sudan, which is a predominantly Muslim nation? As it is against Islamic law to indenture another Muslim, who do you think are being enslaved in Sudan?

NAME:

WEIGH IN FACT

2) An Ethiopian “coffee ceremony,” which involves turning unprocessed coffee beans into finished cups of coffee, can take three hours. The event is a specific time for Ethiopians and their guests to commune with one another. How would you assess the relationship between coffee and one’s sense of community in Ethiopia?

NAME:

WEIGH IN FACT

3) To be a Christian in Afghanistan means there is the constant risk of losing one's life for following Christ. Many Christians keep their faith a secret, or they will risk being subjected to beatings, tortures, kidnappings and/or even threats of death. Have you ever suffered for your faith in Jesus? What does "carrying your cross" mean to you?

NAME:

WEIGH IN FACT

4) Think about a situation where someone lied about you, bullied you, rejected you, or took something meaningful away from you that was clearly yours. What emotions and reactions did you have? Compare that situation and the resulting feelings with those of Christians around the world who are facing persecution for their faith due to opposing friends and family members.